A place of ideas

We love autumn. Nature puts on its annual art show, hearty dinners are back on the menu, and best of all, it's a culture vulture paradise, with loads of new things to see and do. So, whether you're seeking career inspiration or want to impress interviewers with your industry knowledge, there's something for everyone to get stuck into this season.

Pumpkin spice latte ready? Let's kick things off with a trip to Bucks and Oxon's latest exhibitions.

Pass the popcorn...

What do Hidden Figures, Blue Story and A United Kingdom have in common?
Answer: they all elevate stories from under-represented cultures and groups. Into Film want to see Black experiences celebrated year-round, so the free educational programme has curated a selection of guides to encourage discussion around these change-makers. We think it's the perfect activity for any budding actors, directors or writers.
