Notice of hearing date – agreement to reduction in notice time

The Clerk to the Independent Panel is normally required to give you 10 school days’ notice of the hearing date. It may be possible to hear the appeal sooner than this if waive your right to this period of notice but this may result in the case papers being sent to you just before the hearing instead of the usual timescale.

If you wish to waive your right, print and sign your name below:

I wish to waive my right to the 10 school days’ notice of the hearing and I understand that this may result in a shorter time scale to consider the case papers.
